When the matter was called out, learned counsel for the petitioner Mr. Shah, under instructions, submitted that the petitioner would like to make representation to the concerned authority within a period of two months and till then, the present position may be directed not to be disturbed by the respondent authorities. He has further requested that on representation being made, sympathetic view may be taken by the Government. He has, therefore, sought permission to withdraw the petition, at this stage. Permission to withdraw the petition is granted. On representation being made to the concerned competent authority, within period of two months, the authority will consider it sympathetically, since the issue pertains to the lives of tribal and, more so when we have wedded to welfare State doctrine, and the present position shall not be disturbed for a period of two months from today.
